2. Please exchange your money to New Taiwan Dollar in the Taoyuan International Airport or Kaohsiung International Airport. In most case, the process fee is cheaper at airport than hotels or banks.
3. Climate
Taiwan enjoys warm weather all year round. The strongest fluctuations in weather conditions are during springs and winters, while during summers and autumns the weather is relatively stable. Taiwan is extremely suitable for traveling, as the annual average temperature is 28 degrees Celsius. Therefore, with the exception of a few mountain areas where some traces of snow can be found during winters, no snow can be seen throughout Taiwan. When summers are about to dismiss springs (March to May), continuously drizzling rain will sometimes fall on Taiwan. When visiting Taiwan during this period, remember to carry an umbrella at all time; because although it might seem romantic to have a stroll in the rain, it is no fun to travel when you're soaking wet. During the summer (June to August) typhoons sometimes approach or land the country.
4. Time
The local time in Taipei is GMT +0800, Standard Time.
5. Electricity and Water
Taiwan uses an electric current of 110 volts at 60 cycles. Tap water is drinkable but drinking un-boiled water is not recommended. Most hotels provide boiled drinking water and bottled water.
6. Currency and Credit Cards
The Taiwan's unit of currency is the New Taiwan Dollar (NT$), which has five denominations in paper money and five in coins. Paper money comes in NT$2000, NT$1000, NT$500, NT$200, and NT$100 denominations. Coins come in NT$50, NT$20, NT$10, NT$5 and NT$1 denominations. Foreign currencies can be exchanged at government-designated banks and hotels. Receipts are given when currency is exchanged, and must be presented in order to exchange unused NT dollars before departure.
Major credit cards such as American Express, Master Card, Visa, and Diners Club are accepted and traveler's checks may be cashed at foreign-exchange banks, some tourist-oriented businesses, and (by room guests) most international tourist hotels.

7. Banking Hours

Monday - Friday: 9.00am – 3:30pm

Automatic teller machines (ATMs): 24 hours in the city and suburbs. Please look for the Cirrus, Plus, Mastercard, or Visa symbol if you are using an ATM card from a bank outside Taiwan. Cathay National Bank and Megaholdings bank are two banks in Taiwan where all foreign cards can be used.
